Heraldry

- I have done a preliminary conflict check against the SCA Ordinary for our proposed Shire badge: Fieldless, a cross formy quadrate sable. At this point, I have not found any conflicts, though I want to double-check and consult with other heralds before submitting. If Council approves and if the conflict check remains clean, I will submit said blazon and image to the College of Heraldry as our Shire badge.

- Lord Tomas de Courcy was recently informed that his arms are at Laurel, the last stage of the registration process. All going well, he should hear back in about a month. Good luck, Lord Tomas!

- I am very pleased to see the list of classes being offered at the Tir Righ Heraldic Symposium and looking forward to it extremely.

Monthly Lionsdale

Dance Report

Greetings unto the Seneschal of Lionsdale and its populace, the following is the full report for March AS44 being the year 2010.

- Lionsdale dance has occurred on Tuesday evening from 7:30 - 9:30 PM . Dance has taken place on March 9th with an attendance of 15 individuals.
- The dance group has continued with the fee of $3 per person, with no student rate available. Everyone has abided by the new pricing.
- The testing for La Misura di Ballare is still available, but no new testing has occurred recently.
- This month it was decided that a theme night would be held at dance practice. We hosted a 1980s theme party for the dancers, and much fun was had. A good number of dancers participated in the theme night, with varying degrees of costume.

This concludes Lionsdale dance report, March AS44 being 2010.

Lionsdale Scribal Report – March 2010

THL Elspeth Selwode

mka Mellissa Kimberley

Scribal Night:

Scribal night was held on Tuesday, Mar 9 and saw Wulfstan, Agdta and myself painting until the wee smalls.

Principality News: The reins have been handed over to the new Coronet Scribe and HL Sionann is doing a marvelous job. She is getting charters printed up and available to painters.

Kingdom News: Supply is beginning to trickle for Kingdom charters as the reign gets into full swing and branches across the kingdom are working hard.

Champions' Scrolls: Nothing to report at this time.

Heraldic Symposium: I have spoken with Thora about hosting a scribal table in the hall at the upcoming heraldic symposium and between Thora, Sionann and I, we anticipate having someone there at most times to help supply charters, encourage new painters and facilitate painting.

Other Scribal News: I am teaching a beginner's charter painting class at the TUTR session in Lions Gate this weekend. I have at least three students signed up and am looking forward to sharing what I know and learning what I can.

Pied Piper Report for the month of March.

-Nothing to report due to the fact that I am unable to make many of the events this year

-I am planning on having a table for young ones at the Heraldic Symposium with the following activities: colouring of illuminated letters (colouring book), making of their own arms ('shield' blanks) and/or badges.

-If I am unable to attend the event, I will have a stand-in. I will let everyone know as soon as possible.
