Quarterly Master of stable's report for Lionsdale (Abbotsford, Chilliwack, Mission) April 7, 2010

We have been working on an indoor site for fight practice. As it stands we have located a suitable venue and have a commitment from 2/3 of our required participants. I am still looking for a person to head up archery.

There have been no incidents to report.

Monthly Lionsdale

Dance Report

Greetings unto the Seneschal of Lionsdale and its populace, the following is the full report for April AS44 being the year 2010.

- Lionsdale dance has occurred on Tuesday evening from 7:30 - 9:30 PM . Dance has taken place on April 13th with an attendance of 10 individuals.
- The dance group has continued with the fee of $3 per person, with no student rate available. Everyone has abided by the new pricing.
- The testing for La Misura di Ballare is still available, but no new testing has occurred recently.
- The Lionsdale Dancers attended the Tir Righ Heraldic Symposium during the evening hours on the Saturday. Several dancers from other Baronies participated in dance on Saturday evening, and one new dancer joined our class on Tuesday evening.

This concludes Lionsdale dance report, April AS44 being 2010.

Chatelaine:

Not much to report for the month of March. I have contacted Geoff back (he sent an email with his thoughts to Thora) about his ideas for recruiting new members into our area/the SCA in general. No solid plans have been decided, but I am pleased that yet another member of the shire also wants to come up with ideas and help out on this front.

No emails or questions came in from the Lionsdale Chatelaine email last month.

That is all!

Lionsdale Scribal Report – April 2010

THL Elspeth Selwode
mka Mellissa Kimberley

Scribal Night: Scribal night was held on Tuesday, April 13 and saw Wulfstan, Fiona the Archer of Lions Gate and myself painting until midnight!

Champions' Scrolls: Warwick's scroll has been assigned to Agdta, who is working on wording and design ideas.

Scribal Activities at Events: Heraldic Symposium - I helped to host an informal scribal table at the Symposium, which was utilized by several painters (and observed by no less than His Highness!) throughout the day. I also spoke with the College of Heraldry at the meeting the following day to request that next year's Symposium be a Heraldic and Scribal Symposium, as the two disciplines are so intrinsically tied together and this is also what is done at both Kingdom and Knowne World level. I am willing to offer my help to facilitate this in my purview as Tir Righ Chief Scribe.

Principality News: I have handed out a few Tir Righ charters to Fiona, Gwenne, Geoffrey, Christy and Katarina (who has asked me to complete it for her) and everyone is hard at work on those.

Kingdom News: I still have some Kingdom charters available for painting.

Other Scribal News: I have been asked to teach charter painting technique at a workshop hosted by Lord Adam Fairamay and Lady Aelfrun, as well as attend and lead a painting workshop at the home of Fiona the Archer. More detail will be forthcoming as they are hammered out. Julie-Anne's crafts in Chilliwack is beginning to stock more gouache paint and I was asked to determine what colours they should order for their regular stock. I'll post to the forum when the paint arrives

Pied Piper

Activities: There was no call for my skills at the recent Heraldic Symposium.

Supplies: Shield Blanks and Illuminated colouring pages have been added to the Kit

Budget proposal for Bard and Banquet 10:

This budget is based on 120 tickets sold.

Autocrats: Tamara Young / Kim Kirby

Tokens	$240.00	Float	$500.00 (-Not included in budget total)
Site	$770.00
Kitchen	$120.00+tax
Food	$1500.00
Site copy	$60.00

Ticket Printing $106.00+tax

Total $2796.00

Site information (The site will be the Clarke Foundation Theater in Mission, B.C. The address is 33700 Prentis Street, Mission, BC (604) 820-3961. This site has been approved by the director. This theater seats 750 and has three levels. It has a green room and make-up area. This is a professional style theater, with a lobby, ticket center and the works. There are no separate clean up fees. The damage deposit will be 50% of the total cost down. The site times will be set at a closer date. The site is 650.00 for the rental plus one dollar per person on top of that fee.)

www.heritageparkcentre.com

Food (The food will be served in the cafeteria, located feet from the entrance of the Clark Theater. The food served last Bard and a Banquet 10 was delicious and presented exceptionally well last year, that I have ask Christine and her crew to prepare it again this year. She has agreed. Chairs and tables will be provided by the site. A small kitchen is available on site for our use. The kitchen has a capacity of 250 persons. The above food price is based on 120 seats filled and 30 cast members feed with no charge to them.)

Gate (Gate and tickets will be managed by Kim Kirby.)

Tickets (The Tickets will be printed through ticket master on official copy. The above ticket printing price for 120 tickets is based on the Ticketmaster website.)

Site copy (It is tradition for Bard and a Banquet to have a site copy with Bios and description of the play. Based on 150 copies, enough for the cast too, printing at Staples will cost us $60.00 to print, not including the staples. Rick recommends going to Sunrise printers)

Tokens (Tokens will be a surprise!)

Door Prices (There will be door prices for all to enter. These will be given out at Intermission. The prices would be hand crafted donations from Lionsdale's populace, *cough* me.)

Parking (Parking is provided by the Theater.)

Decorations (Decorations will be kept to a minimum. The Lionsdale table cloths will be in use for the Buffet table and some of the Lionsdale banners will be used to help decorate the eating hall.)

Volunteers (Volunteers will be needed to help run gate.)

Ticket price (The ticket price will be $25.00 per adult, $10.00 per child 5 and under is free. I suggest that we are flexible on allowing more people into the site that did not preorder tickets, to an aloud maximum of 250, the kitchen's maximum allowable occupants.)

Lionsdale Champions - July 23 to 25, 2010

The Shire of Lionsdale once again will assemble to behold the challengers compete in becoming our new Champions of Armored Combat, Target Archery, and Combat Archery! We entreat all those who would bear the honor of our Shire's name, to challenge for the title of Champion of Lionsdale. We also beckon our neighbors and friends from far and wide to show their support for these challengers, and cheer them on through their attendance at our event.

There will be activities of all kinds in addition to the above championships, as we strive to delight those who would grace us with their companionship. Further details can be found at a later date on the Kingdom Calendar and the Lionsdale website.

Please join us July 23 to 25, 2010 in Aldergrove BC. Site opens at 5 pm on Friday, and closes at 3 pm on Sunday.

Merchants are welcome; there is no merchant fee. We would be appreciative of a donation; however if your wares are of great value, we would like to purchase an item of your craftsmanship at cost, so that our new Champions may be enriched as befits their achievement. Please contact the merchant stewards at your earliest convenience to discuss this, and advise of the space that you require.

* Heraldic Symposium

- I attended and took classes on the Tir Righ ceremonial, conflict checking names, and designing alternative scrolls (runestones)
- Six Lionsdalers recieved awards: Andrea (AoA from Their Highnesses); Tomas and Wulfstan (both GdS from Her Majesty); Thora and Their Highnesses (all Forget-me-Not from Her Majesty)
- Caitrina McAndrew was installed as Silver Yale, Dame Theocharista having stepped down for health reasons
- I attended the College of Herald's meeting on Sunday: the direction and development of the College was the central item of discussion; also open deputy offices and some early planning for next year's Heraldic and Scribal Symposium. Also announced was the news that we may soon be able to process submissions in place of the An Tir College of Heralds before sending them for review by Laurel.

* Branch Badge

- I have the form required to submit our proposed badge (Fieldless, a cross formy quadrate sable), which does not appear to conflict with anything currently registered in the Ordinary. Consultation with Caitrina Silver Yale confirms that crosses are somewhat rare charges at present, which allayed my initial fears that I'd missed something.
- The cost to register a badge is $10. I would like to ask Council for these funds as a budget item separate from my discretionary funds, as it is a one-time expense separate from my day-to-day operations.

* Supplies

- I have purchased a set of Crayola markers and Staedler pigma pens for use in drawing gentles' devices and badges for submission. These are materials approved for the purpose by both the Tir Righ and An Tir Colleges of Arms. I have receipts in the amount of $ 22.21 to submit to the Exchequer.

* New Deputy:

- I have taken Lady Astrid on as a deputy. What her focus will be is still in discussion.

* Deputy's Report: Geoffrey du Val de Lion, Contingency Deputy

- May have a verbal report at Council

* Deputy's Report: Lady Astrid

Bardic:

- We had 3 men at choir practice on Saturday April 3rd, a 50% increase from our first practice. We are looking forward to our next practice on the 17th and hoping for growth on a similar scale.

And from March (not sure what happened with this before):

- Geoffrey du Val des Lions and I are putting together a male voice chorus. We are meeting to rehearse at his home on two Saturday evenings each month (scheduled around local and major events). Our goal is to learn a varied repertoire of period songs to perform at events. Those interested are invited to join us.

- At the same time and place as the choral practices Geoffrey and his lady are hosting combined bardic and A&S evenings. THL Elspeth has offered to teach and facilitate scribal arts and largesse making, and to help support other A&S projects people may choose to bring. There is good lighting and plenty of tables and chairs; room for cutting fabric and sewing (and lots of outlets for sewing machines!). All who are interested are invited to bring their projects or come to work on largesse or a charter and join us.

Greetings

Well, the Champion festivities are over and I think everyone had a good time. I certainly did. First and foremost our new Champions are:

A & S

Lady Kaleigh, with a wondrous and delicious Hare dish, well documented and very well prepared.

Rapier

Lord Sebastian de Sandoval
in quite exciting winning bout

Bardic performance

Hlaefdige Thora

with 2 most enjoyable pieces, a beautiful song and a most wondrous story.

I would be amiss if I were not to mention the other contestant, as their contributions were also quite fine. I was happy not to have to judge. Lady Marin, Angentyrs wife, provides us all days with well prepared, tasty food. Not to say the least, very affordable. Our Potluck feast was varied, plenty and delicious. The judges left enough of the winning hare to fill out the potluck dinner with more meat, so everybody had a chance to taste this wondrous morsel. For my thanks, there are many people who made my job so much easier; I could absolutely not have this done on my own. My special thanks go to Lady Geira for taking care of gate so competently, Lady Aine for organizing and setting up our potluck. Thank you, Lady Andrea for taking care of Lists for the Rapier competition and Baroness Kaitrin and Lady Danitha for taking care of the Lists for the heavy fighting tournament. Thank you, Lord Symon for being my driver, schlepper, and man of all my needs. Thank you, Lady Katarina for putting up with me through all her life.

Last but certainly not least, for all the people who were there when I needed them, especially to get me faster to where I wanted to go. I am sure that I have forgotten some things but again Thank to all for making this event a success. I would love to be able to say: "let's do this again soon," but I don't think that will happen for me. Last but not least, The Dessert Auction netted us a tidy sum of $107.18 which will be donated to Doctors Without Borders/Haiti.

As you have already the Exchequer report, I will not include it again.
