OFFICER REPORTS:

A&S Report – HL Genevieve de Clairvaux

Andrea, Honor, Shayla, Komo Dori and Sofia continue to make progress on the Tudor ladies 'window' panel. Ayame is half finished her painted Japanese panel and has completed a heraldic dag. She also made a kosode (japanese shirt). Astrid has finished sewing a cavalier hat for Alejandro. Karen is starting her first tourney garb. Elspeth is helping Constance with childrens' t- tunics and constructing bog coats for herself and her son. She is also working on Tudor court garb, embellishing a forepart and researching beadwork and undergarments. Viscountess Gwyneth is working on an applique wool coat. I completed a hand sewn doublet for Richarde and reboned a bodice. Rayne helped me to repair pearl strands on another bodice.

Elspeth, Aine, Lorna, Josephina and I are embroidering. Aine and Johanna are making beaded necklaces. Algernon is working on his artwork. Misallel is doing stick weaving and has started his second leather arrow quiver. He donated the first quiver as a 'shoot the bunny' archery prize which was won by Ayame. Yolanda donated fuzzy bunny prizes which were won by Misallel.

Sofia, Johanna, Yolanda, Elspeth and I are working on charters and scrolls. I made a repousse box cover and a bobbin lace sampler. Richarde is making leather shoes and is building an oriel window with carved wooden panels featuring fleur de lis, swans and baroque scrollwork. He displayed his pewter casting, painted wooden whalers chest, gorgets and handsewn doublet at Kingdom A&S. I displayed costumes.

There was a good turnout for the Corsets and Elisabethan Garb class taught February 20th by HL Isabel de la Roche and Lady Mariko of Lions Gate. As a result of this class many students have been inspired to research and begin Elisabethan garments.

Dance continues on Tuesday nights at the Lions Hall with Caterina and Brian leading the classes. Bardic often follows, at Boston Pizza.

Chamberlain – Alexandra Octavia

There has been little response on the forum as to what Shire property is held by members of the Shire. An inventory is being taken to give a true representation of what the Shire has.

Chatelaine Report – HL Sofia Marika Trom von Trifels

I had a few inquiries on line and got in touch with a couple of people. One was for a photo opportunity but I have not heard from them again. The other, a young gentle named Mark, I met at the last Monday night fight practice. He is interested in dancing and in the high drive of the Hauseatic League. We had a request for a possible loan of 'stuff'. This was forwarded to me by Princess Amanda. I am working on particulars before I bring it forth.
