On May 29th Lady Rahil Al'Zarqa taught middle eastern dance and HL Safiye Konstantiniye taught a Turkish Garb class. On June 5 Lady Honor taught No Pattern Construction. Alysonne taught Calligraphy on June 12. Richarde Touchet taught Archery and Thrown Weapons May 31st, June 7 and June 14th. Weekly Renaissance dance classes were taught by Azzah, Donatello, Richarde and Brion.

Projects:

The 4 Tudor Ladies panel has been finished with help from Andrea, Sofia, Ayame, Rayne, Astrid, Alexa and myself. Ayame has completed her Japanese painted panel with help from Rayne. Ayame made a repousse badge of her Japanese device, a banner and jinmaku (curtains) for her Japanese encampment. Elspeth, Constance and Madelaine are making pin cushions for largesse and sewing garb. Sofia continues to make silver jewelry. Yolanda has made a felted pouch. Yrsa is embroidering a celtic knotwork project and teaching Algennon a variety of stitches. Ion is helping several people make heavy armour. Richarde made several dozen arrows. Campbell made his first SCA outfit: trousers and 2 tunics that were sewn by hand. I made two wool tunics, a dagged hood, a tudor cap and 3 cloaks. Lionsdale's 3 painted stone wall panels were displayed at May Crown and were much admired. The dedicated troupe of Lionsdale dancers performed very well at May Crown and Sea Lion War. They're famous now! Thanks to Sofia and Richarde for making repairs to the Lionsdale pavilion in time for the Champions Tourney this weekend. We have a new hall, the German-Canadian Club Hall on Alexander Ave. Dance continues there on Tuesday nights from 7pm to 10pm, along with Arts and Sciences. We will be paying $30 cash per night until next Council meeting when a contract will be signed if everyone is in agreement.

Lionsdale champions went very well in the waterbearing department. Rioghaina was oh-so-helpful enough to pick up the pickles, oranges, and water bottles needed for the event, since I was unable to. during the event, Lady Astrid was more than helpful.
